FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

RCL Enterprises: Annual Thanksgiving Dinner Giveaway!

New York, NY (November 22, 2004) — For an unprecedented 31st year, RCL Enterprises, an established southern cuisine catering company based in Queens, NY, will be serving FREE Thanksgiving dinners to every patron. RCL recognizes that one in five people in New York City rely on free food from soup kitchens, food pantries and shelters to avoid going hungry and the economic downturn has significantly increased the demand for food assistance over the past year. “We hope our donation will make the holidays brighter – and fuller – for many families in the community” said Helen Sanders, the President of RCL Enterprises.

The special FREE holiday dinners will be served on November 25th, 2004 at RCL’s restaurant location, 141-22 Rockaway Blvd. South Ozone Park, NY 11436, from 10am till 4pm.

Helen and James Sanders, both founders of RCL Enterprises, have been committed to giving back to the community over a period of years, and their generosity has touched the lives of many people. Here are a few organizations that RCL Enterprises have reached out to:

- Queens Hospital Center Pediatric Aids Clinic
- Queens School for Cancer Care
- South East Queens Jr. Olympic Games
- Friendship Baptist Church (feeding the homeless twice a week)
- J Cap for Kids
- Thanksgiving Community Outreach

RCL is also in the process of establishing a scholarship fund that will enable dedicated, low income pupils to further their education. This program is scheduled to launch in the beginning of 2005.

RCL Enterprises has been serving a great taste of traditional Southern cuisine for over 30 years in tri-state area. RCL is dedicated to providing quality service in the hospitality industry through the production of excellent, high-end southern cuisine.
